Drivable Scavenger Hunt!

- Canada 150 Mosaic
- White Rhino
- London Normal School
- Longhouses
- Solar Tree
- Gate House
- RCRM
- Telescope

VISIT US: LONDONTOURISM.CA
Fun Facts

- London Clay Art Centre (LCAC)
  To celebrate Canada’s 150th year in 2017 the LCAC made a 34½’ x 26’ _______ with thousands of tiles. It took 650 volunteers to complete!

- Museum London
  Many locals know the iconic_________ in front of Museum London. Can you guess what kind of material was used to build it? Aluminum!

- Wortley Village
  Built in 1898-99 & known for its architectural styles (Classical, Gothic & Romanesque Revival), the _________ has long been a centre for education.

- Museum of Ontario Archaeology
  500 years ago, _________ were homes that held 38-40 people. This replica was built on the exact original site, where archaeologists found circles in the ground from posts. What kind of materials were used to build _________? Sheets of bark such as elm & birch.

- Tourism London
  The _________ is the City of London logo. How many leaves does it have? If you counted 27, you’re correct! When charged, the panel can power up to 7 homes.

- Elsie Perrin Williams Estate
  The gate house was designed in 1895 by _______ when she was only 15! The Estate is one of a few surviving built by wealthy Londoners in the 19th & 20th centuries. If you’re in the area, check out Medway Valley Heritage Forest.

- Woseley Barracks
  Did you know that the_______ is one of Canada’s oldest museums? Listen to their monthly podcast featuring talks on anniversaries & milestones in Canadian military engagements.

- Western University - Hume Cronyn Memorial Observatory
  How many _______ do you think Western University has? There are currently three! These were made by Perkin-Elmer Corporation, who also manufactured parts for the Hubble Space Telescope & developed astronaut Neil Armstrong’s space helmet visor.